

The 83-Agent Workforce

Eight always-on core agents, plus seventy-five senior specialists dispatched on demand. The Brain routes each unit of work to the agents that own it, fans out independent work in parallel, pipelines dependent work, and integrates what comes back. New specialists are added each quarter and every deployment inherits them automatically.

8 core + 75 specialists = 83 Routed by one MCP Brain · wired to live systems via the open Model Context Protocol

The Brain right-sizes every dispatch: a copy change needs one specialist, a new vertical may need fifteen. Independent work runs in parallel; dependent work pipelines analyst → builder → tester → release. Each build report names the agents actually activated.
